CI Arb

International Dispute Resolution Masterclass Shanghai, 26-27 September 2016

Co-organisers:

UNCITRAL - RCAP

Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, East Asia Branch (CI Arb EAB)

International Dispute Resolution Academy (iDRA)

Highlights:

This two-day intensive masterclass programme focuses on what lawyers, arbitrators and cross-border trading companies and merchants need to know about the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Conciliation, UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules and UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules. It will develop participants' understanding of the aforementioned UNCITRAL instruments and further substantiate their understanding of the prevailing principles and practice in international arbitration and cross-border dispute resolution.

There are two modules in the programme. Module 1 consists of one-day interactive lectures and workshops on UNCITRAL instruments on international arbitration and dispute resolution; and Module 2 is the CI Arb EAB Entry Course.

Participants who complete both Modules will be awarded a certificate of attendance issued by the organiser(s). Those who pass the assessments in Module 2 will be eligible to apply for Associate grade of CI Arb (which is the first grade). Further information about the CI Arb courses can be found at www.ciarb.org.

Target audience:

Lawyers, arbitrators, executives and researchers who are involved and interested in international arbitration and cross-border dispute avoidance, management and resolution

Faculty Profiles:

Head of the Faculty of the course: Anthony HOUGHTON S.C.

Anthony Houghton is a founding faculty member of the International Dispute Resolution Academy (iDRA). Tony first qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in the United Kingdom, and practiced that profession when he first came to Hong Kong in 1981. He later studied law, and was called to the Bar, in England and Wales in 1988, and in Hong Kong in 1989. He has practiced as a barrister since, advising and acting in a wide variety of civil and commercial litigation, but with a particular emphasis on construction and engineering work, especially in arbitration. He was appointed as Senior Counsel in 2008.

Although still active as a counsel, much of his practice now involves sitting as an arbitrator in Hong Kong, elsewhere in Asia and the Middle East on both construction and various non-construction related disputes. Tony was appointed as a Recorder of the Court of First Instance of the High Court of Hong Kong in March 2013, and sits as a judge in that court on a regular basis.

Tony is a Trustee of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and is also an approved tutor and course director for that body. He has been involved in many arbitration training courses, at all levels, and in at least 10 different jurisdictions. He is a former Chairman of the East Asia Branch, and was, for several years, a committee member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Association in Thailand.

Edward CHOW, FCIArb graduated from the Law Faculty of HKU and has been a member of Hong Kong Bar since 1990. Edward obtained two LLM degrees from HKU in arbitration and dispute resolution and corporate financial law. He actively practices in commercial law, equity, company law and a wide range of civil cases in Hong Kong Courts and in arbitration. Edward serves as Chairman of Appeal Tribunal (Building Ordinance), Member of Inland Revenue Board of Review, Member of Greater China Sub-committee of Hong Kong Bar Association and Branch Secretary of East Asia Branch. Edward is a HKIAC List of Arbitrators and SIAC Panel of Arbitrator and an Accredited HKMAAL Mediator. He frequently acts as arbitrator in Willem C Vis International Commercial Arbitration and as moot judge for the major law schools in Hong Kong and is also a member of the Approved Faculty List of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.
